

JLR-05/10

GEOGRAPHY

Time allowed : Three Hours

Full Marks : 100

All questions carry equal marks.Answer any FIVE questions.

1. What is meant by global warming and climate change ?
Explain the causes and consequences of this phenomena world over. 20
2. Explain and illustrate Hydrological Cycle. Give a systematic account of fresh-water resources in the world. 20
3. 'Mediterranean environment is considered to be most hospitable both for human concentration and farming'.
Discuss. 20
4. Explain the factors affecting the concentration and density of human population in the world. 20
5. Critically examine the deterministic relationship that exists between man and environment. 20
6. Differentiate between the rural and urban poverty. Mention the strategies which can be helpful to alleviate rural poverty in India. 20

7. Give a brief account of Von Thunen's theory of agricultural location and mention the recent modifications made in it. 20
8. Explain the difference between regional and systematic approaches for the study of Geography. 20
9. Present an account of the classification of world climates proposed by Koppen. 20
10. Justify that petroleum is a prime source of energy. Mention the present and potential areas of petroleum production in India. 20